

Ramon Kesur

AA Rated Member of PGA of Australia

Ramon has been a teaching Professional for over twenty years. He has been teaching at Moore Park Golf for over eleven years. Ramon has accumulated a vast amount of experience in teaching beginners, group classes, juniors, as well as senior golfers. "Understanding what the golfer wants and having the patience to attain these goals with them are my strengths" says Ramon.

Ramon has added to his teaching skills by learning from some of the best coaches in the world. He has coached with Rick Smith (former coach of Phil Mikelson), Hank Haney (coach of Tiger Woods), Gary Edwin (former coach of Peter Lonard and current Australian coach of the year). "I like learning from the best and applying some of their techniques" says Ramon.

Ramon begins coaching his students at the driving range, developing through to the finer skills of on-course play. Says Ramon "A golfer should try to master all the shots, including side hill lies, and bunker shots, as well as oncourse management". My experience as an International Teaching Professional for the past twenty years gives me the confidence to take my students to the level of golf they would like to attain".
